

MR. WEINBERG

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] SHERMAN, CO [REDACTED]

My name is GreyBear~11 and I know about the secret you are keeping from your wife and everyone else. More importantly, I have evidence of what you have been hiding. I won't go into the specifics here in case your wife intercepts this, but you know what I am talking about.

You don't know me personally and nobody hired me to look into you. Nor did I go out looking to burn you. It is just your bad luck that I stumbled across your misadventures while working a job around [REDACTED]. I then put in more time than I probably should have. Frankly, I am ready to forget all about you and [REDACTED] and let you get on with your life. So I am going to give you two options that will accomplish that very thing. Those two options are to either ignore this letter, or simply pay me $3,650.

Let's examine those two options in more detail.

Option 1 is to ignore this letter. Let me tell you what will happen if you choose this path. I will take this evidence and send it to everyone in your life, especially [REDACTED]. And as insurance against you intercepting it before she gets it, I will also send copies to her friends, family, associates, and all your neighbors on and around [REDACTED]. So even if you decide to come clean with your wife, it won't protect her from the humiliation she will feel when everyone she knows finds out your sordid details from me.

Option 2 is to pay me $3,650. We'll call this my "confidentiality fee". Now let me tell you what happens if you choose this path. Your secret remains your secret. You go on with your life as though none of this ever happened. Though you may want to do a better job at keeping your misdeeds secret in the future.

At this point you may be thinking, "I'll just go to the cops." Which is why I have taken steps to ensure this letter cannot be traced back to me. So that won't help, and it won't stop the evidence from ruining your life. I'm not looking to break your bank. I just want to be compensated for the time I put into investigating you.
